Installment 1 — Advance Payment: 100,000 PKR

- 50% of the total paid amount is refundable in the event that ScholarshipHive Edutancy fails to get the student to the Campus France interview stage.
- In the event that the student successfully reaches the Campus France interview stage but is unable to secure an offer letter by August 2027, they shall be entitled to either take a refund of 10% or continue their process for the next intake.

Note:

- In the event of any technical glitch, system issue, or unforeseen difficulty arising from the Campus France side during the interview, the company will make reasonable efforts to arrange another interview opportunity. If a re-interview cannot be arranged, the student will be transferred to the next available intake without any additional charges.

- Once payment is made it is not refundable if the client decides to stop the application process by change of his mind or any reason.

Installment 2 — After Admission Confirmation: 165,000 PKR

Admission letter details will be shared with clients when the client submits the payment of 165,000 PKR.

Important

- A bank statement of 6 months, from an account maintained for at least 3 months or more, reflecting a balance of PKR 35/40 lacs (35/40 lacs plus your remaining tuition fee) is required to meet French embassy financial standards. The official maintenance requirement stands at €877 per month (€10,524/year), and maintaining this balance ensures full compliance. A stronger financial profile significantly improves visa approval chances.
- The sponsor of the bank statement can only be your blood relative in the list of FRC from NADRA. Admission can be secured based on transcripts if you graduate before JUNE 2027.
- To apply for VISA you need HSSC or Bachelor's degree.
- The company is only responsible for securing your admission to a university and visa guidance. Company does not guarantee visa approval. All visa-related decisions are made solely by the French consulate and relevant government authorities.
- Once you start the process with the company. At any stage of process if you want to change your mind or want to skip the process then you must have to clear all our package dues. If failed to do so, Company have rights to take legal action against you.
- The client acknowledges that all decisions, policy changes, additional conditions, or rejections issued by the French Embassy or any immigration authority are beyond the jurisdiction and control of the consultancy. The consultancy provides facilitation services only and shall bear no liability, financial or otherwise, for any embassy-imposed requirements or outcomes. The client agrees to comply with all such requirements properly.

Conditions

- If the student changes his plans after paying any of the installments, he/she is not liable to ask for a refund of the amount.
- Student must follow the installment plans and clear it to the company on the mentioned time frame. If failed to do so then Company will not take any responsibility of loss.
- The Consultancy Firm's fees, as outlined above, cover only the educational advisory and consulting services provided. Any additional expenses, including but not limited to university
